

∞ Contents ∞

1	Maybe I Have No Right to Interfere?	1
2	Maybe It's Best to Do Nothing?	3
3	How Do I Formulate a Plan?	6
4	What Works Best?	11
5	How Should I Interact?	18
6	How Do I Begin To Communicate?	22
7	What Should I Say?	25
8	What Should I Say To a Non-Jew Who Wants To Marry My Child?	46
9	What Should I Say If He Calls Me a Racist?	49
10	What Can My Child Say to Break Off the Engagement?	52
11	Case Histories - Latent Anti-Semitism	55
12	Case Histories - Underlying Differences	65
13	Case Histories - The Children	67
14	Case Histories - Parental Opposition	73
15	Case Histories - Methods for the Rabbi	80
16	To Convert or Not to Convert?	87
17	What Makes a Universally Accepted Conversion?	94
18	Jewish Ceremonies for Mixed Marriages?	99
19	Stemming Inter-marriage - Why and How?	101
20	What Can the Family Do?	111
21	What Can the Community Do?	114

22	Questionnaires	118
	APPENDIX A	133
1	The Jewish View of Marriage	135
2	“What are the Reasons Not to Intermarry?” R’ Nachum Braverman	139
3	“On the Jews” John Adams, Second President of the US	142
4	“What is a Jew?” Leo Nikolaievitch Tolstoy	143
5	“Concerning the Jews” Mark Twain	145
6	“Israel” Rabbi Samson Raphael Hirsch	147
	APPENDIX B	149
	Sample Letters to Someone Considering Intermarriage	151
	Schools	159
	Conversion Boards	161
	Recommended Reading	164
	Rabbis	181
	The One Book to Give Your Child	182
	About the Author	184
	If You Have Used This Book With Success...	185